

2011 Partnership Proposal

Orlando Hudson of the San Diego Padres is calling for a different kind of strike. Join Orlando Hudson and more of your favorite past and present Padres players for a few hours of good, clean fun in the bowling alley. The Strike Out! Autism Bowling Fundraiser will take place on Thursday, July 28, 2011 from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. at East Village Tavern and Bowl.

Your day on the lanes will benefit the C.A.T.C.H. Foundation and Rady Children's Hospital Autism Discovery Institute.

The C.A.T.C.H. Foundation:

The C.A.T.C.H. Foundation (Curing Autism Through Change and Hope) is a non-profit foundation established by 9-year MLB veteran, All Star and Gold Glove recipient, Orlando Hudson. Founded in January 2008, the C.A.T.C.H. Foundation assists children and families who cope with autism to enjoy a normal life, through the funding of proper therapy, education, and extracurricular activities. Through its grants to schools and other non-profit organizations that support the fight against autism, the C.A.T.C.H. Foundation is building a strong force to defeat the growing developmental disorder.

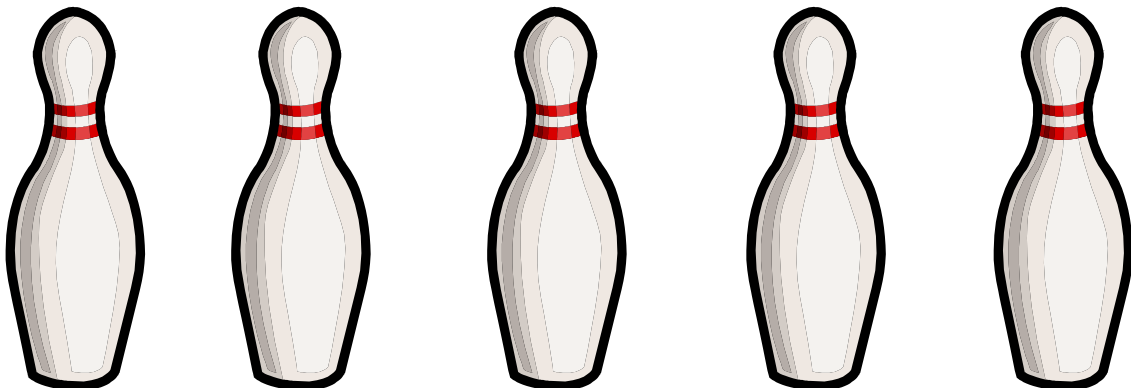

The Autism Discovery Institute:

The Autism Discovery Institute is a state-of-the-art facility providing comprehensive services and advanced research into autism spectrum disorders. There you'll find all of Rady Children's renowned diagnostic and treatment services under one roof, as well as programs to help families have positive experiences and interactions.
